ABOUT SIKKIM

Sikkim is a state in northeastern India, known for its stunning natural beauty and rich cultural heritage. It borders the Tibet Autonomous Region of China in the north and northeast, Bhutan in the east, Nepal in the west and the Indian state of West Bengal in the south. Sikkim is also close to the Siliguri Corridor, which borders Bangladesh. Sikkim is the least populous and second-smallest among the Indian states. Situated in the Eastern Himalaya, Sikkim is notable for its biodiversity, including alpine and subtropical climates, as well as being a host to Kangchenjunga, the highest peak in India and third-highest on Earth. Sikkim's capital and largest city is Gangtok. Almost 35% of the state is covered by Khangchendzonga National Park – a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The Kingdom of Sikkim was founded by the Namgyal dynasty in the 17th century. It was ruled by Buddhist priest-kings known as the Chogyal. It became a princely state of the British Indian Empire in 1890. Following Indian independence, Sikkim continued its protectorate status with the Union of India after 1947 and the Republic of India after 1950. It enjoyed the highest literacy rate and per capita income among Himalayan states. In 1973, anti-royalist riots took place in front of the Chogyal's palace. In 1975, after the Indian Army took over the city of Gangtok, a referendum was held that led to the dissolution of the monarchy and Sikkim's joining India as its 22nd state.

ANTI-RAGGING POLICY

Sikkim Skill University (SSU) enforces a zero-tolerance policy against ragging in accordance with the UGC Regulations (2009, amended 2016) and the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. Ragging is strictly prohibited on the University Campus, in hostels, transport facilities and during all University related activities, inside or outside the campus.

Ragging includes any act that causes teasing, harassment, humiliation, abuse, physical or psychological harm, coercion, extortion, or disruption of academic activities, including sexual harassment, public disgrace and cyberbullying. If any incident of ragging comes to the notice, it should be immediately reported to the Anti-Ragging squad or the Dean or Head of the University.

Anti-Ragging Committee

Under para 6.3 (a & c) of the UGC Regulations, 2009 to prevent the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions, the University has constituted an Anti-Ragging Committee, Chaired by the Vice-Chancellor, along with an Anti- Ragging Squad. The details of the Committee are given on the University website.

Anti-Ragging Measures

- ☐ The students and their parents have to submit an online undertaking at the time of admission.
- ☐ At Sikkim Skill University, Induction and sensitization programs are organised by the university, CCTV surveillance is done and helpline details are widely displayed.
- ☐ Sikkim Skill University offers Counseling support, mentorship programs and Conducts regular surprise inspections at hostel, canteen, toilets to prevent ragging.

Punishments for Ragging

Students who indulge in acts of ragging will be punished as applicable, which may include any one or a combination of the following:

- ☐ Cancellation of admission
- ☐ Suspension from classes
- ☐ Withholding of examination results
- ☐ Debarring from appearing in any test / examination
- ☐ Rustication from the University
- ☐ Expulsion from the hostel or the University
- ☐ Withholding / withdrawing scholarship / or other benefits
- ☐ Fine with a public apology
- ☐ Debarring from representing the university in any regional, national or international meet, tournament etc.
